MANY COAL MINES EXCEED FEBRUARY PLAN -- Borba, No 54, 5 Mar 49

All the black and brown coal mines in Serbia exceeded their February production plans. The best record was achieved by the "Vrska Cuka" mine, which exceeded its plan by 40 percent as the result of improved working discipline and competition.

At the Bogovina mine the February plan was exceeded by 27 percent as a result of working one more face by the "wide face" system.

The Senje mines, which have been backward in production for a long time, exceeded their February plan by 2 percent, and the Jelasnica and Kostolac mines completed their plans ahead of schedule. The Kosovo miners also exceeded their February plan.

The Slovenian lignite miners surpassed their February plan by one percent, and the Slovenian coal miners fulfilled theirs.

The most successful mine in Bosnia and Herzegovina was the Kakanj mine, which after months of low production exceeded its February plan and made up the production lost in January. The construction of a separation basin salvaged much coal which formerly would have gone into the river.

The Breza mine exceeded its February plan by 4 percent. The Mostar mine exceeded its February plan by 19 percent, and the "Marija Bursac" mine exceeded its plan by 90 percent.

In Croatia the Koprivnica mines exceeded their February plan by 28 percent, the "Ivan Polje" mine 25 percent, and the Ivanec mine by one percent. The Siveria mine fulfilled its plan.

However, some mines in Bosnia and Herzegovina and in Croatia failed to meet their plans.

SERBIAN COAL FIELD EXCEEDS PLAN -- Borba, No 56, 7 Mar 49

Miners of the Kostolac coal field surpassed the February production plan for the field as a whole by 11 percent. In most mines the daily plans were exceeded 15-20 percent, but lack of transportation for workers between their villages and the mine lowered production to 10.4 percent below plan at the Klenovnik mine and to 23.2 percent below plan at the Novi Kostolac mine. The Stari Kostolac mine was one percent short of its plan because of preliminary work in progress at the mine.

SERBIAN COAL FIELD BEATS PLAN -- Borba, No 54, 5 Mar 49

Obilic--The workers' collective of the Kosovo coal field, which was one of the poorest in Yugoslavia in 1948 and did not fulfill its plan during any month of that year, fulfilled its January plan 95.5 percent and surpassed its February plan by one percent.

SERBIAN MINES EXCEED PLAN -- Borba, No 56, 7 Mar 49

The Senjski Rudnik brown coal mine exceeded its February production plan by 33 percent, and the mine at Ravna Reka exceeded its plan by 5 percent. The Ravna Reka mine won the flag both in January and in February for the best results in production and efficiency.

VOJVODINA MINE EXCEEDS PLAN -- Borba, No 58, 9 Mar 49

Sremska Mitrovica--The miners of the Vrdnik mine succeeded, with the help of volunteers from the People's Front, in exceeding their February plan by 2.08 percent, in spite of an accident to their transport equipment one night in late February.

SLOVENIAN COAL MINES FULFILL PLANS -- Borba, No 54, 5 Mar 49

The workers' collectives of the mines in the Zasavski coal field (Trbovlje, Zagorje, and Hrastnik) have fulfilled their February plans. The best results were shown by the workers of Trbovlje, who surpassed their plan by 4.3 percent.

BOHEMIAN MINE EXCEEDS PLAN -- Borba, No 56, 7 Mar 49

The February production plan at the Ljubija mine was exceeded 5.5 percent and the shipping plan 7 percent. The power plant at the mine surpassed its February plan by 12.5 percent. These successes resulted from extension of the brigade system of labor and from participation in a contest.

MACEDONIAN MINE EXCEEDS PLAN -- Borba, No 54, 5 Mar 49

The workers' collective of the Zletovo mine exceeded its February production plan for lead-zinc ore by 38.6 percent and for lead concentrate by 23.3 percent.

MINE FAILS TO MEET PLAN -- Borba, No 56, 7 Mar 49

Knjazevac--The "Soko" mine failed to fulfill its February production plan by 5.19 percent and failed to meet its efficiency plan by 33 percent.
